

DIAGNOSTIC DAY WITH HAIG

Strategic Sessions for Leaders & their Teams

The challenges facing Leaders today can't be solved from the inside out alone

Market turbulence is destroying the ability to plan, supply chains are strangled and uncertainty is the new certainty

SESSION MECHANICS

Against the current backdrop of global politics, macro economics, environmental concerns and changing compliance requirements. This session will enable you to review your own leadership challenges:

- Changes in customer requirements & regulations
- Virtual & hybrid team productivity
- Stakeholder communication & collaboration
- Supply chain delays & constraints
- Rapidly advancing technology

Run through your Strategic Plan with Haig.

Explore the dynamic risks, threats and opportunities that these turbulent times offer and redesign your approach using our proven 10-10-10 Methodology.
